ISTHMUS AFFAIRS.

The Secretary of State Makes a Statement in Regard to the Government's Attitude.

OUR RIGHTS UNDER TREATY OF 1846

The President's Act Was in Strict Accordance With Principles of Justice and Equity.

It Was the Only Course the Executive Could Take in Compliance With Our Treaty Rights and Obligations.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The secretary of state made the following statement Friday in regard to affairs on the Isthmus of Panama:

"The action of the president in the Panama matter is not only in the strictest accordance with the principles of justice and equity, and in line with all the best precedents of our public policy, but it was the only course he could have taken in compliance with our treaty rights and obligations. By our treaty, entered into with New Granada in the year 1846, New Granada guarantees that 'the right of way or transit across the isthmus of Panama upon any modes of communication that now exist or that may be hereafter constructed, shall be free and open to the government and citizens of the United States.'

"This is a right which we acquired by the treaty not gratuitously conferred, but in return for an important compensation, for in the same article the government of the United States guarantees 'positively and efficaciously to New Granada by the present stipulation the perfect neutrality of the before mentioned Isthmus with the view that the free transit from the one to the other sea may not be interrupted or embarrassed in any future time while this treaty exists; and in consequence the United States guarantees in like manner the rights to sovereignty and property which New Granada has and possesses over the said territory.'

"The close connection thus created between the two governments was well set forth by President Polk, in his message transmitting the treaty to the senate. He said:

"The importance of the concession to the commercial and political interests of the United States can not be overrated. The route by the Isthmus of Panama is the shortest between the two oceans and from the information herewith communicated it would seem to be the most practicable for a railroad or canal. The vast advantages to our commerce which would result from such a communication not only with the west coast of America, but with Asia and the Islands of the Pacific, are too obvious to require another detail. Such a passage would save you from a long and dangerous navigation of more than nine thousand miles around the Horn and render our communication with our own possessions on the northwest coast of America comparatively easy and speedy. The treaty does not propose to guarantee a treaty to a foreign nation in which the United States will have no common interest with that nation. On the contrary, we are more deeply and directly interested in the subject of the guarantee than New Granada herself or any other country.'

"The control in the interest of the commerce and traffic of the whole civilized world, of the means of undisturbed transit across the Isthmus of Panama, has become of transcendent importance to the United States. The right to this control we have never forfeited by any laxity of our own, either in the assertion of our rights or in the performance of our duty under the treaty. In 1853 Mr. Everett assured the Peruvian minister that we should not hesitate to maintain the neutrality of the isthmus in the case of war between Peru and Colombia. In 1864 Colombia, which has always been vigilant to avail itself of its privilege conferred by the treaty, expressed its expectation that in the event of war between Peru and Spain the United States would carry into effect the guarantee of neutrality. There have been few administrations of the state department in which this treaty has not, either by the one side or the other, been used as a basis of more or less important demands.

"In 1886, when Colombia was under the menace of hostilities from Italy in the Cerruti case, Mr. Bayard expressed the serious concern that the United States could not but feel that as a European power should resort to force against a sister republic of this hemisphere as to the sovereign and uninterrupted use of part of whose territory we are guarantors under the solemn faith of a treaty. The United States has not only constantly protected Colombia from foreign invasion on the strength of the rights and the duties created by the treaty of 1846, but has time and again intervened to preserve the freedom of traffic from disturbance in the course of domestic dissension. In these cases we have intervened some times at the suggestion of Colombia, some times on our own impression of the necessities of the case, but always to the profit of Colombia as well as of universal commerce."

THE DEAL CLOSED.

A Big Acreage of Timber Land in Kentucky Sold.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Nov. 7.—The Loveland-Garrett Lumber Co., of Clark county, composed of C. H. Loveland and H. Green Garrett and Cincinnati and Covington people, has purchased 40,000 acres of timber lands lying in Breathitt, Morgan, Wolfe and Powell counties. The land was bought at $6 per acre, and comprised some of the best timber in the state. The company will inaugurate a new feature in the lumber business by sawing all lumber in Kentucky and shipping east for sale. The new company will give employment to almost 200 men.

THE ISSUANCE OF A WARRANT.

It Caused a Magistrate to Kill An Enraged Farmer.

Bowling Green, Ky., Nov. 7.—Magistrate Elijah Upton Friday shot and killed Tom Stewart, a farmer, at Richardsville, this county. The shooting was the result of the issuing of a warrant by Squire Upton for Stewart's arrest on the application of the latter's son, following a quarrel over politics. Stewart had been voting the republican ticket, but Tuesday announced his intention of voting for the democratic nominee. His father entered a decided protest, which angered the young man, and father and son came to blows.

Decide For Hunter.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—The republican state central committee voted 7 to 4 that Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter is the party nominee in the Eleventh district, reversing the district congressional committee. Secretary of State Hill was asked to recall his order certifying to county clerks that D. C. Edwards is the nominee. He will not do so unless forced by the courts. The matter will probably be left to congress to decide.

Swallowed Pieces of Steel Wire.

Versailles, Ky., Nov. 7.—George Honaker, 40, under sentence of life imprisonment for beating his wife, died in jail Friday. The post-mortem disclosed a mass of short pieces of steel wire in the stomach. Honaker had threatened to commit suicide. The court of appeals recently reversed the lower court's verdict, and Honaker would soon have a retrial.

ALASKAN AFFAIRS.

During the Year the System of Military Telegraph Lines and Cables Were Completed.

IT CONSISTS OF 1,740 MILES.

One Line Was Pushed Across a Country Never Trodden by the Foot of a White Man.

Effort Will Be Made Next Year to Establish Communication By Wireless Telegraph Between St. Michael and Nome.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Gen. Greely, chief signal officer of the United States army, in his annual report to the secretary of war, shows that during the year the system of military telegraph lines and cables in Alaska authorized by congress has been completed, and consists of 1,740 miles. General Greely commends very highly Capt. Burnett, who was in charge of telegraph construction work in Alaska, and his assistants, Capt. Mitchell and Gibbs. In speaking of the extreme difficulties encountered in running telegraph lines in the far north, Gen. Greely says:

"Very early springs, late autumns, enormous snow fields, summer floods, impassable canons, and last of all, a gold fever which stripped one officer of every civilian employe, save one, have alternately impeded progress, but the energy and resourcefulness of the officers in charge of the work have met and overcome difficulties which seemed insurmountable."

It is said that one line was pushed along a route pronounced impracticable and another across a country that never before had been trodden by the foot of a white man.

Gen. Greely says efforts are making with prospects of success in 1904 to establish communication by wireless telegraph between St. Michael and Nome, a distance of 108 miles.

The connection by submarine cable of the detached system in Southeast Alaska with that of the Yukon district is recommended; also an increase in the enlisted strength of the corps in order that unduly prolonged service on foreign stations may not be necessary as now, and further that an additional colonel be authorized for the corps. The value of the telegraph and telephone business transacted by the corps in the Philippines is estimated at $1,500,000.

REPUBLIC OF PANAMA.

The United States Recognizes It as a De Facto Government.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The United States has recognized the new republic of Panama as a de facto government. This action was agreed upon at the cabinet meeting Friday. Instructions in accordance therewith were cabled at once to Minister Beaupre at Bogota and to Vice Consul General Ehrman at Panama. They will be ordered to notify the republic of Colombia and the republic of Panama of the action of the United States.

A copy of the cable dispatch sent by the state department to Minister Beaupre regarding the recognition of the de facto government at Panama was transmitted to Dr. Herran, Colombian charge, Friday afternoon by Secretary Hay. It was accompanied simply by a brief, polite note, announcing that it was a copy of the communication to the United States minister at Bogota. Dr. Herran has not yet acknowledged receipt of the note.

FRENCH PANAMA CANAL CO.

It Will Be Paid the $40,000,000 on Conditions.

Paris, Nov. 7.—M. Jusserand, French ambassador at Washington, promptly communicated to Foreign Minister Delcasse the details of a conversation he had with United States Secretary of State Hay Thursday evening in which the latter gave assurance that if the United States concluded a treaty with the republic of Panama for the construction of the canal, the French Panama Canal Co. would receive the $40,000,000 agreed upon for the purchase of the French rights.

Hanna Will Not Act as Chairman.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 7.—Senator Marcus A. Hanna will not be at the head of the republican national committee in the next campaign. This statement was Friday issued with full authority. Nor will any power be found to make him recede from his determination not to lead the fight in 1904.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The secretary of the navy signed the orders dismissing Midshipmen Joseph Drummond Little, John Henry Lofland and Earl Worden Chaffee from the service of the United States. They were convicted of hazing.

THE LANDING OF OUR TROOPS.

It May Cause Serious Complications, Says Senator Morgan.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Senator Morgan said Friday that soon after congress convenes in extra session he would introduce a resolution calling on the foreign relations committee of the senate to obtain from the state department a detailed report of the relations between the United States and Colombia, under the treaty of 1846. According to Senator Morgan, the attitude of this country is not justified by a careful construction of the provisions of the treaty and is at variance with precedents laid down by the United States. In discussing the situation he said:

"This is the fourth time the United States has landed troops on the isthmus under cloak of the treaty. Herefore it has been for the suppression of rioting and for the protection of Colombia. Now that it is against the wish of Colombia it undoubtedly will provoke a just protest.

"Colombia means to war. Of that I am certain. This government will find that it will have a series of complications on its hands not unlike that offered by the Indians when they were met with the territorial aggression of this government and the trouble the Colombians will make will be similar to that of the Filipinos, with the conduct of warfare far more difficult. I believe, however, the administration will not have this matter to decide. It is a question for congress and that body is not likely to shirk the responsibility."

IN THE COAL CREEK DISTRICT.

A General Fight Between Union and Non-Union Miners.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 7.—Trouble between union and non-union miners of the Coal creek district broke out late Thursday and a general fight ensued at the mines of the Coal Creek Co. As 100 non-union miners came out of Thistle mine from work they were met by 200 union miners who, after assaulting several, took the whole number prisoners and marched them to the railroad station and put them on a train for Jellico, paying fares for each.

The Coal Creek Co. accepted the scale of wages set out in the recent operators and miners joint conference but the company proposed to make contracts with the individual miner instead of with the miners' union. This was combatted by union miners, with the result that the company recently ordered all union miners to quit its employ and vacate its houses. Ejectment suits followed and are set for hearing November 12. This company has for years employed both union and non-union miners and has paid the union scale.

FIRE IN A MINE.

Nine Men Lost Their Lives So Far as Is Known.

Virginia City, Mont., Nov. 7.—Fire in the Kearsarge mine Friday killed nine men, so far as is known Friday night. The damage to surface buildings is slight. Four bodies have been recovered. The others may have escaped death in some nook, which is free of gas.

All the miners were from Butte. How the fire originated is not known. At the first alarm all the miners, carpenters and laborers, 170 in all, hastened to aid in subduing the flames. Superintendent R. B. Turner went to the mine and assumed the direct conduct of affairs. Others were seen to enter the tunnel through fire and smoke to give warning to the entombed miners and was overcome by smoke and flames.

During a Minstrel Performance the American Anthem Was Hissed.

GIRL HYPNOTIZED.

The Strange Experience of Miss Clara Josephine Coffin, of East Orange, N. J.

ABDUCTED BY A MAN AND WOMAN.

In a Half Dazed State the Girl Was Taken to Chicago and Other Western Points.

While on a Train at Cedar Rapids, Ia., She Recovered Her Senses, Slipped From the Car and Made Her Escape.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 7.—Miss Clara Josephine Coffin, daughter of W. Ward Coffin, whose mysterious disappearance from her home in East Orange, N. J., last Tuesday, had caused her parents great anxiety, arrived in Omaha Friday and is now at the home of Postmaster Joseph Crow, whose wife is a niece of the girl's father. The young woman is prostrated by a nervous shock, which, she says, is the result of an attempted abduction from her home by two strangers, a man and a woman, while under a hypnotic spell.

According to the young lady's account of her abduction, she had been attending high school in East Orange, and last Tuesday, there being no school, she made a trip to the gymnasium to take the usual exercises. For the last month she had been passing a strange woman near the school building. The woman had piercing black eyes and the girl says they had an extraordinary effect on her. Tuesday the strange woman approached, she says, and told her in a commanding way to pack her clothes and follow her and in a half dazed state and acting under a spell, the girl made the trip back to her home and, without seeing any of the family packed her clothing and did as the woman bade. When Miss Coffin returned there was a strange man with the woman.

The girl, according to the story she tells, was placed in a carriage and, after the man and woman had entered, was driven to Newark, N. J., and soon landed in New York city. She next realized that the party was aboard a train on the way to Chicago. She was driven from one railroad station to another in Chicago and, when they again boarded a train, the woman remained with her and the man occupied a seat in the coach next to the rear. When the train reached Cedar Rapids Miss Coffin recovered her senses, slipped out of the car and sent a telegram to Postmaster Joseph Crow asking him to meet her. Meantime her captors left the car, she says. Postmaster Crow met the girl. He took the young woman, who is suffering from nervousness, to his home and placed her under the care of a physician. Miss Coffin is confined to bed.

No trace has been found of the mysterious man and woman of whom Miss Coffin speaks, and the only suggested motive is that they expected to abduct the girl and hold her for ransom.

East Orange, N. J., Nov. 7.—E. W. Coffin Friday received word from Joseph Crow, postmaster at Omaha, saying that his daughter, Clara, had arrived in Omaha. Last year the Coffin family attended a family reunion at Newcastle, Ind., and there Clara met Hazel Crow, with whom she has since corresponded. The parents think that, mentally unbalanced by study, their daughter conceived the idea of visiting her cousin.

Regarding the story from Omaha that the girl had been abducted and had managed to escape, Mr. Coffin said that probably it was an invention of her deranged mind.

FINE SHEEP KILLED.

Twenty-two Belonging to Mr. John B. Peters Destroyed by Dogs Thursday Night.

Mr. John B. Peters, living near Bernard, had twenty-two fine sheep killed by dogs sometime Thursday night.

These sheep were finely bred and were valued at $8 or $9 a head, making Mr. Peters' loss from $150 to $200.

In Ohio and some other States there is a tax on dogs to provide a fund to pay for such losses as above, but the Kentucky Legislature has failed to enact such a law, and Mr. Peters will not get anything for his sheep unless he can recover damages from the owner or owners of the dogs.

WORK TO BEGIN SOON

On the C. and O. R. Railroad Between Ripley and Aberdeen—Then Comes the Bridge Over the Ohio River.

[Aberdeen Gretna Green]

The surveying corps of the O. R. and C. Railroad are now at work between Ripley and Aberdeen and will, in the next ten days, have the route between the two towns completed. Construction will begin between the above points about the first of December and by next spring Aberdeen will have a sure enough railroad, not only one, but, as time grows apace, the traction line, which is coming up the north bank of the Ohio, forming the connecting link between Cincinnati and Portsmouth, will reach here.

The building of the road makes a bridge across the Ohio at this point inevitable, making the O. R. and C. the direct north branch of the L. and N. As the Gretna said, years ago, this is undoubtedly the shortest route obtainable between North and South, passing through the best and most fertile country on earth and tapping the great inexhaustible coal fields of Kentucky. Indeed, the prospects for the greatest and most lasting boom for all this section of country is very brilliant and a foregone conclusion. It is an old adage that "time and opportunity strike all people," and it is generally true of place and location.

Aberdeen and Maysville have to these many years been enjoying a Rip Van Winkle sleep. Their time and opportunity has now come and they will shake off the old legarthic sleep, wake up and be somebody. The coming of the railroad means new faces, hustling business men, who will wake up our old fogies or else bury them out of sight. There will be more capital and everything will tend to show we are still in the world. A new and bright future is upon the eve of dawning on us. Let us prove worthy of the situation and be in the front ranks. Wake up, shake up and let the world know that you still live.

The O. R. and C. bridge across Straight was finished Tuesday evening and the track tayers are proceeding toward Ripley. It is given out that the track can be laid at a rate of one-half mile per day. As the grading is now nearly completed it looks as though the completion of this part of the road is in sight. The graders worked and another switch was built at the stone crusher on the Nye farm Sunday. Several self-dumping cars have been received and the ballast is being hauled on the road-bed at the rate of ten cars a day. Five new box cars were received last week, a heavy freight engine is expected to arrive at any time, while three handsome new passenger coaches are nearing completion and will be shipped in few days. On the road bed between here and Sardinia the grading is being done very rapidly. The contractor states it is to be finished in thirty days. It is pronounced by those who have gone over it as one of the finest road-beds to be seen. Already four cars of steel rails have arrived for this part of the road.

It has been suggested that with the opening of the road between here and Ripley celebrations be held in both towns. The idea meets the approval of everybody and should be taken in hand immediately.

Farmers, attention! We offer 25c. (in trade) per dozen for fresh eggs, during next week. Highest price for all produce. Langdon-Creasy Co., cut rate cash grocers.

The entertainment given at the Christian Church Thursday night under the auspices of two of the Sunday school classes—Miss Sallie Wood's and Miss Greenwood's—was a very enjoyable affair. The program as heretofore published was rendered, with one or two slight changes. Among the musical numbers was Mrs. Katherine Tabb-Craven's beautiful new song. It was sung by Dr. Smoot. The songs by the Misses Tolle, Miss Styles, Miss Emma Luman, Dr. Smoot and Miss Blaine were all sweetly rendered. The receipts were about $25.

At the First M. E. Church, South, there will be no service Sunday night, in order that the congregation may hear Judge Cochran's Sunday school address on the Map of Palestine.

The Way Boys Make Shoe Leather Disappear

Is a caution. A "strenuous" youngster will wear out more shoes than two or three of his "elders." We have a splendid line of goods built for this particular brand of the "rising generation." They are called

"Good For Bad Boys,"

And are guaranteed to give absolutely satisfactory service. Being made of solid leather throughout, there is no lining to wrinkle or wear over the toes. Parents are invited to examine this line when buying their children's shoes.

THE PORTLAND EXPOSITION.

The Funds Made Available Exceeds One Million Dollars.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 7.—The finance committee of the Lewis and Clarke exposition reports that the funds made available for the exposition up to November exceed one million dollars. An effort will be made to secure from the next national congress an appropriation of $2,500,000. Of the state appropriations that of Minnesota is the largest, being $70,000. Eight other states have contributed various sums from $10,000 upward, many more states have promised to make appropriations and some of those already contributing have agreed to double their appropriations. Several foreign countries and many of the states of the union have agreed to exhibit all or a large portion of the Louisiana Purchase exposition exhibits at the Lewis and Clarke exposition.

Vote As You Please

W. H. Means asks his friends to re-elect him Assistant Superintendent for the purchase of Boots and Shoes. I am sure since my election to this office I have saved the voters and their families $10,000 on the shoes I have bought for them. My platform is solid sole leather. Everybody must get on if they want dry feet this winter. My object in wanting this office is for the money there is in it. My deputies will be Jim Egnew and Billy Cooper. All at

Dan Cohen's Great Western Shoe Store!

W. H. MEANS, Manager.

P. S.—If you want money before you vote, see me.
